Rulemaking 04-04-003
(Filed April 1, 2004)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
SETTING ADDITIONAL WORKSHOPS FOR RESOURCE
ADEQUACY REQUIREMENTS (RAR) - PHASE 2

During the course of an "all-party" meeting held on March 30, 2005, representatives of the California Independent System Operator, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, and Southern California Edison Company presented and discussed the outline of an RAR proposal (Joint Proposal) that would, among other things, address the nature of the resource adequacy obligation on a transitional as well as a long-term basis.

It appears that the record for Phase 2 of the resource adequacy portion of this proceeding will be enhanced if the Joint Proposal and any related alternative proposal can be considered and more fully developed in workshops and in subsequent comments. Therefore, in consultation with Assigned Commissioner Michael R. Peevey, IT IS RULED that:

1. Workshops to consider the Joint Proposal referenced above and any alternatives to the Joint Proposal are set as shown in the following table:

DATE	TIME	LOCATION
April 21, 2005	10:00 a.m.	Commission Courtroom, San Francisco
April 22, 2005	10:00 a.m.	Commission Courtroom, San Francisco
April 29, 2005	10:00 a.m.	Commission Courtroom, San Francisco

2. Parties sponsoring the Joint Proposal should develop and distribute not later than April 19, 2005, for consideration at the workshops scheduled herein, a straw proposal providing as much detail as possible. In accordance with the procedure established in the November 19, 2004 and January 7, 2005 rulings, straw proposals are not to be filed with the Docket Office. Straw proposals should be served electronically on the most recently updated version of the Phase 2 Contact List, earlier versions of which were attached to those rulings.

3. Issuance of the Phase 2 Workshop Report should be deferred until after completion of the workshops scheduled herein. Because of the delays that have occurred, the previously adopted Phase 2 schedule is rescinded and will be reset by future ruling.

Dated April 7, 2005, at San Francisco, California.
